

I do not wish for the privacy telephone act to be abolished. It has increased my peace at home drastically. If I want something solicited I will pick up my phone and call the company. I do not want unsolicited phone calls. My family life is more important than spending all night answering unwanted phone calls.